Honorary/Ambassador

Anyone may be nominated for this award as long as the service they provide is directly related to enhancing the quality of bowling within the association, and they have been providing this service for 15 years or more. The board of directors will review the qualifications and approve or deny. Nominations may be received throughout the year; however, no formal action will take place until April each year. The recipient of the award will receive a plaque in recognition of their service to the bowling community.

APPLICANTS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

In 250 words or less, please provide information regarding the applicant's special initiatives, contributions, and accomplishments for which he/she is nominated. You may attach one letter of recommendation.
